

Windows CE App Manager error on Vista

If you get a CE app manager error during the installation please finish the configuration of the Vista windows mobile device center first.

After that it should automatically install the DW pda client!